

PTTEP Australasia TIMOR SEA OPERATIONS

Media Clarification

Date: 29 October 2009 11.55 WST

Media reports have stated that PTTEP Australasia is the owner of the West Atlas drilling rig.

This is incorrect – the West Atlas is owned and operated by Atlas Drilling (S) Pte Ltd which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Seadrill Limited. The West Atlas is under contract to PTTEP Australasia.

Media reports stating that the leak is coming from the West Atlas rig are also incorrect. The leak is emanating from a well on the Montara well-head platform.
